OPEN CALL

BIENNO BORGO ARTISTI 2.0

YEAR 2024

1. Aims of the call

The Bienno Borgo Degli Artisti 2.0 project is looking for artists who intend to live and work in the medieval village of Bienno. The project aims to enhance and promote research and experimentation.

The 2024 theme is:

SERENDIPITY

Serendipity is positive randomness, spontaneous creative motion. Not waiting, but searching, perceiving, opening our gaze to everything around us. A work in progress that transforms mental and physical spaces, creating change.

Even error sometimes leads you to explore unexpected places from which ideas, discoveries, art works and innovations are born.

2. Participation requirements

The project is open to artists, artisan, designers, video makers, illustrators, digital artists (3D, NFT) performers (availability of theater space) operating in the field of visual arts, music and theater, photographer, writer, street artists with identifiable research value. Open Call open to cultural professional.

3. Management and duration

The residency periods will vary from four weeks to three months, depending on the finalization of the project. For the artisan, on the other hand, a residency of a minimum of four months is foreseen with the possibility of extension.

4. Offer

- a) The administration makes some shared accommodation available exclusively to artists / artisans residing at a distance greater than 40 km.
- b) Each selected artist will be assigned one of the ateliers located along the streets of the historic center.
- c) Utilities are charged to the administration. Abuses and waste, however, will not be tolerated and will result in the definitive cancellation of the agreements and the end of the residency period.
- d) The library, museums and cultural structures of the municipality of Bienna will be accessible free of charge to resident artists / artisans during opening hours.
- e) The selected candidates will be able to exhibit for free during the 31st edition of the prestigious "Mostra Mercato", an exhibition of art and craftsmanship, capable of attracting up to 200.000 visitors in just nine days, which will be held from 19 to 27 August 2023.

5. Charges and commitments of the participants

1. Bienna Borgo degli Artisti 2.0 aims to promote culture, to support the individual artistic research of the participants and to implement the traditional tourist offer of the area. The selected candidates must therefore commit to make the best use of the spaces assigned to them in the weeks of residence, ensuring in particular the opening of the ateliers at least 5 days a week including weekends, as well as during holidays and events of any nature organized in Bienna.
2. Participating artists will be asked to realise, within the terms of the agreed residency period, the project they proposed in the call for applications. The costs incurred by the artists for the relevant materials will be subject to reimbursement but must be reasonably contained and discussed and approved in advance.
3. Candidates are responsible for their travel and food costs. For equipment and materials expenses must be agreed for each case. In addition, each artist is required to have a personal set of household linens.

4. During the period of residence artist/artisans are responsible for the spaces and objects entrusted to them. It is allowed to host a relative or partner in the entrusted accommodation only with the authorization of the organizing committee and limited periods.
5. At the end of the residency period, participants will be asked to leave one of their works as indicated in the project proposed by them in the application form of the announcement. This will remain with the Municipality of Bienno and will enrich the artistic and cultural heritage of the town.
6. During the 31st edition of the Mostra Mercato, for organizational reasons, the candidates have to temporarily leave the spaces assigned to them, to then return at the end of the event.
7. During the residency period, a laboratory activity adhering to the theme “Serendipity” open to the public will be required in order to facilitate interaction with villagers and visitors (Example: “in dialogue with ...” monthly activity).
8. At the end of the 2024 residency period, the works or projects created will be displayed in a collective exhibition.
9. Failure to comply with the points indicated above may result in the immediate removal of the candidate from the Borgo and the conclusion of the residency.
10. Publication of a catalogue with interviews and video footage of creative activities and project development.

6. Methods for submitting candidacies
